

University of Hawaii

EARDA Update- 10/20/09

Purposes

- Share best practices and challenges faced in establishing a faculty development plan, focusing specifically on:
 - Grant writing
 - Research Mentoring

Grant Writing

□ Consultants

- Dr. Alan Fleishman, National Children's Study
- Government Consultants/presentations- Dr. Terry Huang, NICHD
- Dr. Jared Jobe, NCI and NHLBI
- Dr. Sue Hegevary, U. Washington, Summer writing institute for faculty

Leveraged Consultations

- Dr. Kate Lorig (Stanford), Summer Institute on Self-Management Training (P20)
- Dr. Sue Hegyvary (University of Washington), Writing for Publication Workshop (P20)
- Dr. Pat Grady (NINR), Interdisciplinary Research (P20, OREP)

Outcomes

- ARRA Impact Submissions
 - 4 - RC-1
 - 2 - Competing Revisions submitted
- Other submissions
 - U01 in collaboration with Public Health, Nursing, College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources (nutrition), Department of Education
 - Office of Naval Research
 - K01 award
 - U13 Conference Grant
 - R21

Faculty/Student Development

- Training/education/colloquia/seminars
- Journal Clubs
- Writing Groups
- Undergraduate Summer Research Program
- Undergraduate research project awards

Outcomes

- Three writing groups with journal registry of approximately 20 articles in process
- Two pilot projects (this is our second year of pilot funding) with PIs hiring undergraduate research assistant from different disciplines

Challenges

- Fiscal situation
- Relocation
- Excellent Advisory Committee

Mahalo

